

2018-2019 TALKS PROGRAMME

We offer a range of talks mostly focused on the past of the Hanneys, Oxfordshire and the Vale of the White Horse. In summer we go on visits. Topics for this season are listed below:

| | |
|--|---|
| September 25th Christine Wardingley | Farming and Philanthropy: The early years of Lockinge Estate |
| October 23rd Paul Sayers | Recent Archaeology in and around Hanney |
| November 27th Julie Ann Godson | Scandals in High Society Oxfordshire |
| January 22nd Jim Birch | Casting Metal: The Story of Local Iron Foundries |
| February 26th William Wintle | Roman Hanney? |
| March 26th Mark Davies | A Literary Tour of Oxford's Waterways |
| April 23th Anni Byard | Oxfordshire Finds from the Portable Antiquities Scheme |
| May 28th Becky Hogben | The Vale of the White Horse: A vital Civil War Corridor? |

Hanne y History Group

EVERY 4TH TUESDAY OF
THE MONTH:
25 SEPT 2018 -
28 MAY 2019
8.00 P.M.

War Memorial Hall
East Hanney

OX12 0JL

New members and visitors are always welcome

Costs: 8 evenings for a £12 member's subscription or £3 per talk for visitors [summer visits at group cost price]