

Two men who are remembered on the tablet in the church, have not come back as having any connection to Hanney from the Commonwealth War Graves Commission, and there are no local records of them.

Frederick Constable

The only Frederick Constable who enlisted from this area was from Buckland. His nephew later came to live in Hanney and his children were baptised here.

Ernest Hall

No information can be found about Ernest Hall.