

Folly Bridge by William Delamotte- circa 1820

A Literary Tour of Oxford's Waterways

Mark Davies

For this evening we embark on a "Literary Tour of Oxford's Waterways, with Mark Davies as captain & navigator. Our journey will encounter many classics, from Chaucer's pilgrims to Jerome K Jerome's Three Men (and not forgetting Montmorency!) and include children's favourites such as Alice and Wind in the Willows. Closer to the present day we may be threatened by Philip Pullman's Dark Materials in this virtual cruise, inspired by Oxford poets, novelists, diarists, and chroniclers across the centuries.

Mark is a well-known Oxford historian, author and tour guide. He has lived on his narrow boat in the city for many years.

Hanne y History Group

TUESDAY
26 MARCH
2019
8.00 P.M.

War
Memorial Hall

East
Hanney
OX12 0JL

Visitors and new members are very welcome